PROCEED WITH CAUTION: Slow down and pay close attention to emails sent from outside the organization. If you receive an unsolicited email from an unknown sender or are suspicious of the tone, style, vocabulary or urgency of the email message, never click links or open attachments within it. When in doubt, you should either delete the email, verify its authenticity by contacting the sender using an alternative method not listed in the email, or submit it via the BlueFish button in Outlook for investigation. If you don't have the BlueFish button or are using a mobile device, forward the email as an attachment to phishtanktriage@ccf.org
